

HEADLINES

David A. Robinson appointed to serve on the California State Bar's Commission on Judicial Nominations and Evaluation (JNE)

Thursday, September 15, 2005

The Enterprise Counsel Group, is pleased to announce that its managing shareholder, David A. Robinson, has been appointed to serve on the California State Bar's Commission on Judicial Nominations and Evaluation (JNE). By law, the JNE commission - known as the "Jennie Commission" - vets judicial appointments and provides recommendations directly to the Governor. "I'm excited about the opportunity to serve my State and profession in this important manner. California deserves fair, hard working judges of the highest intellectual caliber. It is the JNE Commission's job to ensure Governor Schwarzenegger has the right information to make accurate, non-partisan appointment decisions." Mr. Robinson previously served on the Orange County Bar Association's Board of Directors, the Orange County Bar Association's Judiciary Committee, and chaired the Orange County Bar Association's Legislative Committee.

Innovative Counsel.
Winning Strategies.™