ECG Lawyer Recognized as Rising Star

Monday, October 04, 2005

Enterprise Counsel Group is pleased to announce that David E. Libman has been recognized as a "Rising Star" in the 2005 edition of Southern California Super Lawyers, published by Law & Politics and Los Angeles Magazine.

Super Lawyers in each state are chosen in a survey of their peers and through publisher Law & Politics independent research. The annual "Southern California Super Lawyers" list comprises the top 5% of attorneys in Southern California.

Managing Partner David A. Robinson said, "He's bright, hard working and cares intensely about his clients. In short, he's our kind of lawyer."

Mr. Libman's practice consists of representation of businesses and individuals in contract, probate and trust disputes. Mr. Libman also represents health care facilities in managed care, employment and unfair competition disputes.

Enterprise Counsel Group, ALC is an Orange County-based law firm and enjoys its reputation for the advocacy of Real Estate, Securities Litigation, Business and Contract Law, Employment, Health Care, Unfair Competition & Intellectual Property, Probate and Trust Litigation, Writs and Appeals, Corporate and Partnership Disputes, Arbitration, Mediation & Provisional Directorships.
